

ONE.

ONE BRAND. ONE FOCUS.
ONE HUNDRED NINETY-SIX AWARDS.
ONE CHOICE... FURUNO!

Only ONE brand of marine electronics has a proven track record of over 60 years, that brand is Furuno. In an industry where mergers are common place, Furuno is ONE company that has never been bought, sold or consolidated. We are the same strong company today, with an unrelenting desire for superior quality!

We have only ONE focus, Marine Electronics. This is not merely Furuno's focal point, but our obsession, clearly illustrated by the incomparable dependability of our products. From Radars to Fish Finders, Chart Plotters to Satellite Communications, we fixate on ONE thing, producing the best Marine Electronics.

The quality of our products is unsurpassed and sets the standard in our industry, as clearly illustrated by the 196 National Marine Electronics Awards that we have won over the past 40 years. Only ONE company has been named "Manufacturer of the Year," as well as being awarded "Best Radar" and "Best Fish Finder" every year since the awards' inception, Furuno.

Only ONE company has consistently delivered unparalleled product support, award-winning performance, and incomparable reliability for more than 60 years. ONE Brand, ONE Focus, ONE choice for your marine electronics, Furuno is... the ONE.
